Tri-State High Adventure Base

Little Sioux Scout Ranch Mid-America Council, BSA

The Tri-State High Adventure Base (T-SHAB) is the Mid-America Council's newest camping experience. Based out of Little Sioux Scout Ranch, and staffed by trained Trek Guides, this is the ULTIMATE adventure for Scouts and Venturers in Nebraska, Iowa, and South Dakota. In 2015, "T-SHAB" became the country's NEWEST Nationally Accredited Council High Adventure Base, offering two treks down the Missouri River, covering over 160 miles of shoreline in an "urban" adventure. After we complete our 2016 season, nearly 100 Scouts and Scouters will have trekked with us!

Now we are excited to announce our 2017 Season, offering exciting treks in your own backyard! Canoe the Missouri or backpack through the scenic Loess Hills...the choice is yours!

Missouri River Trek

Canoe the "Mighty MO" from Vermillion, South Dakota to downtown Omaha, Nebraska, landing in 3 states along the way, covering over 160 miles; visit State Parks and Cities, camping in a mix of urban and rural settings; ride horses, climb a 40-foot rock wall, visit historic sites, and maybe even catch a movie. High Adventure with an urban twist!

Loess Hills Trek

Backpack the scenic Loess Hills, starting in the ridges and valleys of Little Sioux Scout Ranch, and eventually making your way into the rustic center of the Loess Hills State Forest. Carry your week's worth of supplies on your back, and camp in a mix of isolated campsites and "staffed" program stops; experience this "choose your own adventure" style trek, where you and your Crew make decisions that will impact the trails to hike and the activities you do. No two treks are EVER the same!
