REQUIREMENTS FOR BLACK DIAMOND RECOMMENDATION

Black Diamonds are NOT members of the Tribe of Nani-Ba-Zhu. They are Scouts who have shown sufficient growth, that if continued, might well mean they could be considered for membership next year.

Being a Black Diamond does NOT make it automatic nor insure that he will ever be a member. He must continue to grow, mature, and still must measure up to the high minimum standards for Nani-Ba-Zhu membership.

For these reasons, these minimum standards (with NO exceptions permitted) must be met. To be recommended for Black Diamond, a Scout:

1. Must live by the Scout Oath and Law.
2. Must have participated in a majority of his Troop meetings and activities during the past year.
3. Must be a First Class Scout.
4. Must be currently camping for a full week at Camp Cedars.
5. Must be a second-year camper at a Scout Camp. In a FEW exceptional cases, where a Scout meets all other requirements and is significantly older than the age these standards imply, a first-year camper may be considered. Please explain a request for exception below.

Black Diamond is not a mandatory step before Brave. It is still possible for a young Scout not meeting Black Diamond standards to show extraordinary growth and be considered for Brave next year.
