

HOMETOWN HEROES

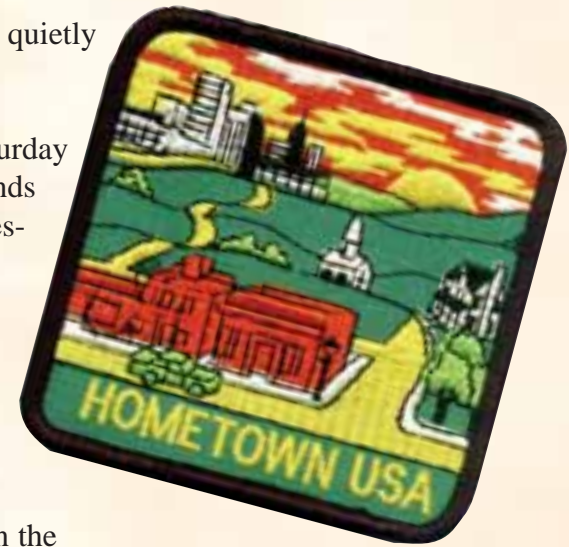

MID-AMERICA COUNCIL, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA
2006 ANNUAL REPORT

Heroes are around us every day ... some do great things, such as saving another person's life, while others quietly do small acts of kindness that go unnoticed, but may be just as important in someone's life.

We are proud of all of our heroes in the Mid-America Council - the Scouts who come together on a cool Saturday morning to collect food for the needy, the single parent who donates time as a Scout leader, the boy who stands up for what is right when his friends are making poor choices ... the members of Omaha's Troop 100 who rescued a toddler from drowning, an Omaha-born youth who went on to become both an Eagle Scout and President of the United States, and two Okoboji Scouts who saved a fellow Scout from hypothermia.

The Mid-America Council is also proud to announce the following highlights from 2006:

- 3,330 Scouts collected 350,378 food items during the annual "Scouting for Food" drive
- 330 young men earned the rank of "Eagle Scout," the largest group in the Council's history
- Matthew Sean Twehous, an Eagle Scout from Malvern, IA, was one of only 12 Eagle Scouts in the U.S. to receive a national Eagle Scout Scholarship; 2,444 Eagle Scouts applied
- The Mid-America Council was named to the national "Chief Scout Executive's Winner circle" as of June 30, based upon membership growth, and was recognized as a "Quality Council" for 2006 for growth in membership, volunteers and funding
- The following districts were named "Quality District" by the national Scout offices: Diamond Dick, Goldenrod, Lewis & Clark, Wagon Wheel, Soaring Eagle, Trailblazer, Thundercloud, Nischa Nimat, Ohwahnasee, Twin Lakes, War Eagle, Venturing and Learning for Life
- Cub Scouts advanced more than 9,684 rank advancements last year; Boy Scouts earned 16,245 merit badges
- Nearly $3 million in popcorn was sold by Council Scouts, making it the fourth largest popcorn seller in the Boy Scouts of America
- Cub Scouts attended camp - 4,829; Boy Scouts enjoyed a week-long camp experience at Camp Cedars in 2006 - 2,037
- The Council's Order of the Arrow Lodge, Kit-Ke-Hak-O-Kut #97 was one of 37 lodges in the Central Region named a "Quality Lodge," and was one of 14 lodges in the U.S. honored for its web site
- The third consecutive "National President's Award for Marketing Excellence" was awarded to the Council
- Ranked first in the Central Region for percentage of top leaders trained (87.7%), the Council far surpassed the national average of less than 50 percent
- Venture Crew 2003 members visited Omaha's "Sister City" of Naas, Ireland, and met the mayor
- The Council reported $1.5 million from its annual "Friends of Scouting" campaign; achieved its goal for the 37th consecutive year
- Units developed an "Ideal Year of Scouting" plan to strengthen their program: 486
- Our 13 districts reported 775 registered district Scouters, ranking the Council number one in the Boy Scouts of America
- Our 13 districts noted 486 Commissioners, a ratio of 2.4 units per commissioner, to place the Council in the top five percent for all councils in the U.S.

The Mid-America Council continues to provide quality programs to teach important values and ethical-decision making skills to young people, to strengthen their families, resulting in better communities for all of us to be proud of!

HEROES AMONGST US

On Saturday, August 19, Boy Scouts Christian Nanson, 11, and Webelos Scout John Fitzgerald, 9, were on a camping trip with Troop 100, chartered by St. Cecilia Catholic Church in Omaha, near the Platte River, approximately 20 miles west of Omaha. The boys, along with their Scout leaders and other members of their troop rescued a toddler floating in the river. The girl had wandered away from her family, when the Scouts saw her. Nanson and Fitzgerald helped rescue the girl from the water, and the other Scouts were instrumental in getting additional help, contacting emergency services and stayed calm throughout the ordeal.

A Distinguished Eagle Scout, the 38th president of the United States was Gerald R. Ford, who was born in Omaha, Nebraska in 1913, and passed away in 2006. Ford's reputation for integrity and openness had made him popular during his 25 years in Congress, and when he took the presidential oath in 1974.

A permanent plaque listing the names of more than 150 Boy Scouts from Troops 4, 17 and 42 since 1917 was unveiled at Dundee Bank in Omaha, in recognition of leadership and the Scouts' service to their community, said Dundee Bank Chairman and founder William Brush.

TO SERVE OTHERS

GARDNER FOUNDATION CAMP STAFF SCHOLARSHIP

Eagle Scout Steven Hicks, of Troop 299, chartered by the Latter Day Saints in Bellevue, NE, is the 2006 Gardner Foundation Scholarship recipient. He worked at Camp Cedars for two seasons. Located in Wakefield, NE, the Gardner Foundation's Scholarship is designed to recognize youth for their leadership skills and commitment to Scouting by spending their summers as camp staff.

ROBERT MUELLER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Robert Mueller Memorial scholarship is a permanent scholarship established in Robert Mueller's name by family and friends. The scholarship is available to registered Scouts who believe in the Scouting program and have proven they have the skills and tools to make ethical decisions to assist them to achieve their full potential over their lifetime.

James Daniel Wyant, son of Susan and Bernie Wyant of Norfolk, earned his Eagle in 2004 and bronze, silver and gold palms in 2004-2005. Wyant will attend the University of Nebraska at Kearney this August to pursue a degree in psychology.

Benjamin A. Burklund, son of Pamela and Bradley Burklund of Omaha, earned his Eagle in 2005 and earned six palms in 2005-2006. Burklund will attend the University of Nebraska at Kearney this fall to pursue a degree in business marketing.

THOUSANDS OF NEEDY IN OUR COMMUNITIES WERE HELPED BY THE 350,000+ ITEMS OF FOOD COLLECTED DURING THE ANNUAL SCOUTING FOR FOOD DRIVE

PROGRAMS

The purpose of the Boy Scouts of America is to provide an educational program for boys and young adults to build character, to train in the responsibilities of participating citizenship, and to develop personal fitness.

Tiger Cubs is a year-round family- and home-centered program that encourages the ethical decision-making skills for firstgrade (or 7-year-old) boys. These boys participate in the program with their adult partners. The program emphasizes shared leadership, learning about the community and family understanding.

Participants in 2006: 2,107

Cub Scouts is a year-round family- and home-centered program that develops ethical decision-making skills for boys in the second through fifth grade (or who are 8, 9 and 10 years old). Activities emphasize character development, citizenship training, and personal fitness.

Participants in 2006: 6,020

Webelos Scouts is a year-round family- and home-centered program that develops ethical decision-making skills for fourth- and fifth-grade (or 10-year-old) boys. Webelos Scouts participate in more advanced activities that begin to prepare them to become Boy Scouts. Participants in 2006: 5,153

Boy Scouting is a year-round program for boys 11 through 17 designed to achieve the aims of Scouting through a vigorous outdoor program and peer group leadership with the counsel of an adult Scoutmaster. (Boys also may become Boy Scouts if they have earned the Cub Scouting Arrow of Light Award and are at least 10 years old or have completed the fifth grade). Participants in 2006: 6,069

Venturing is a year-round program for young men and women who are 14 (and have completed the eighth grade) through 20 years of age to provide positive experiences through exciting and meaningful youth-run activities that help them pursue their special interests, grow by teaching others, and develop leadership skills. Participants in 2006: 2,567

Exploring is a co-ed program for young adults ages 14-21 designed to help them investigate potential career paths.

Explorers meet with professionals in their fields of interest for an inside look at everyday realities. Participants in 2006: 4,010

Learning for Life is a school-based program teaching life skills to children in grades K-12 through practical, age appropriate lessons such as conflict resolution, coping with risks, resume preparation and personal finances. Lessons complement core academic classes to prepare students for success beyond school. Participants in 2006: 7,229

Scoutreach reaches out to disadvantaged young people in our Council using non-traditional methods specially tailored to engage them. Often focused on urban areas, Scoutreach endeavors to ensure that the lessons and values of Scouting are accessible to all, regardless of culture or socioeconomic status. Participants in 2006: 1,905

Juvenile Diversion is a co-ed pre-trial program for youth ages 10-17 who allegedly have committed a misdemeanor law violation. The six-month program provides an alternative to juvenile court, and successfully diverts 85 percent of participants from offending again.

The Impact Diversion program is similar, but provides a co-ed, pre-trial program for youth ages 13-17 who have allegedly committed a misdemeanor or felony.

Teen Court is another co-ed diversion program geared toward first-time offenders ages 13-17. Young people also volunteer to serve as attorneys, judges and bailiffs and determine sentencing for their peers.

POPCORN HELPS FUND A BOY'S IDEAL YEAR OF SCOUTING

The annual popcorn sale in October resulted in nearly $3 million in sales, making the Mid-America Council the fourth largest popcorn seller in the U.S. Scouts who sold popcorn on the "Blitz Day," on the first day of the month-long sale, were treated to special activities around the Council.

LEAVING ONE'S MARK ON THE WORLD

VENTURE CREW TO IRELAND

MUSEUM GROUNDBREAKING

Long-time Scout supporter and Board of Trustee member Anne Batchelder was joined by Council Chairman Father John Schlegel and Scout Executive Lloyd E. Roitstein in a symbolic "groundbreaking ceremony to celebrate the construction of the new Batchelder Family Scout Museum and Education Center, located in the Durham Scout Center in Omaha. Prior to this ceremony, two new street signs were unveiled near the Omaha office - 'Scouting Way' and 'Baden-Powell Bridge.'

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR / CORPORATE PARTNER OF THE YEAR

More than 420 guests attended the 36th annual "Citizen of the Year" luncheon on June 27, raising $58,000. The luncheon recognizes two community leaders for their contributions to Scouting and our community: John P. Nelson and Werner Enterprises.

John P. Nelson - Council board member since 1975; Council endowment Committee member; Friends of Scouting support; John and his wife Anne are Heritage Patrons; his company SilverStone Group provides support and resources.

Werner Enterprises / C.L. Werner - Provides transportation for Scout gear to national Jamboree; donate use of semis for Scouting for Food; host annual "Shootout" as Scoutreach fundraiser.

WHITNEY M. YOUNG, JR. SERVICE AWARD

This award recognizes outstanding services by an adult individual for demonstrated involvement in the development and implementation of Scouting opportunities for youth from rural or low-income urban backgrounds, in fulfillment of Dr. Young's dream of justice and equality for all.

Gina Ponce, South Omaha Scoutreach Committee Chair; assists with Scout's Uniform Bank; coordinated first annual Scoutreach banquet; assists with camping; currently director of Outreach Services for Bellevue University.

SILVER BEAVER & RUSSELL C. HILL AWARDS

The Silver Beaver award is a national award presented by local Boy Scout councils. Established in 1931, this award is the highest honor the Mid-America Council can present to a volunteer. Recipients are Boy Scout volunteers with a minimum of 10 years of service and are nominated for their noteworthy service of exceptional character to youth. This year, 15 out of nearly 10,000 volunteers from the Mid-America Council were honored with this prestigious award.

The Russell C. Hill is the highest recognition for individuals who make an outstanding contribution to character education at the local, state or national levels. Russell Chilton Hill was a prominent businessman in San Antonio, Texas, who spent much of his time and fortune promoting character education in schools. This award is presented to volunteers who have added to the quality of life for families through the Learning For Life Programs offered by the Boy Scouts of America.

UNITED WAY

The Council receives financial support from various United Ways. Area United Way offices collaborate with community organizations, partner with businesses, team with service delivery organizations and join forces with dedicated leaders and volunteers. Together, the Boy Scouts and the United Way help solve community needs that affect families and children, assuring a community-wide services infrastructure.

JAMES E. WEST

The James E. West Fellowship Award is presented to a donor who gives a one-time gift of $1,000 or more in cash or marketable securities to the Council's endowment fund. The gift must be in addition to - and not replace nor diminish - the donor's annual Friends of Scouting support. Organizations or individuals may contribute this award in honor of another person; a new Eagle Scout, a retirement, a Silver Beaver recipient, or in memory of a special individual. Dr. James E. West was a lawyer and an advocate of children's rights, who become the first professional Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America (BSA), serving from 1911-1943. Upon his retirement from the BSA, West was given the title of Chief Scout.

SCOUT OATH

On my honor, I will do my best, To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; To help other people at all times; To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

SCOUT LAW

A Scout is,
Trustworthy
Loyal
Helpful
Friendly
Courteous
Kind Obedient Cheerful
Thrifty
Brave
Clean
Reverent
